BAWSI Athlete Leadership Team Member Position Description

Title: Athlete Leadership Team member

Description: BAWSI is a nonprofit organization that mobilizes the women’s sports community to engage, inspire and empower girls in under-resourced neighborhoods and children with disabilities. As a member of the Athlete Leadership Team (ALT), you are committing to a 10-month, paid, part-time leadership position. During this time, you will have the opportunity to work on a team implementing BAWSI programs within local Bay Area elementary schools, with dedicated time carved out for your own personal and professional development. As an ALT, you will be paying it forward by serving the most vulnerable children in our community; encouraging and inspiring them to become physically active, self-confident, team members and leaders. Upon completion of your time with BAWSI, you will have gained significant skills for your resume, explored your own talents and future career options, and created impact for hundreds of children who have little to no access to sports. The ALT position begins late August 2024 and ends mid-June 2025.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

1. BAWSI Girls, BAWSI Rollers Site Leadership (70%)
   a. Oversee and deliver weekly after-school fitness and motivational programs for 2nd - 5th grade girls* at assigned elementary school(s) (BAWSI Girls)
   b. Oversee and deliver weekly in-school fitness and motivational programs for children with physical disabilities, cognitive disabilities and/or hearing disabilities at assigned elementary school(s) (BAWSI Rollers)
   c. Be a positive role model by inspiring program participants to live an active lifestyle while boosting confidence and self-esteem. Build resilience in program participants through ACCESS – i.e., activity, connection, contribution, expectations, skills for life, and a sense of belonging
   d. Engage volunteer athletes in serving the programs in your area, and be a positive role model to all volunteers as they discover leading through service
   e. Responsible for continued curriculum development and maintenance, attendance tracking, and program evaluation and measurement
   f. Responsible for detailed inventory, preparation, issuing and tracking of program equipment and supplies
   g. Assist in coordinating and managing BAWSI Game Days (field trips to local college campus) for area school sites (as needed)
   h. Maintain positive communication and positive relationships with all school staff and volunteers

2. Personal Exploration and Development (20%)
   a. Practice hands-on leadership grounded in authenticity, mindfulness, integrity, collaboration, enthusiasm and playfulness, building a sustainable and powerful foundation for leading positive change for years to come
   b. Participate in weekly discussions and assignments focused on topics like servant leadership principles and practices, values, communication and dialogue basics, mindfulness, life skills, women’s sports history, and non-profit organization and administration
   c. Group and individual dialogue with BAWSI’s leadership team as well as structured reflection about the impact of your service experience in identifying your personal commitment to “being the change” in the world
